WHERE DOES OUR SYNOD'S BUDGET MONEY GO?
CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP is the administering of that which has been entrusted to us, for the glory of God and for the honor of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Stewardship involves more than the giving of contributions to the Church; it includes also the wise and proper use of that which we set apart for our own use.

But in its relationship to the Church, Stewardship means the consecrated support of the cause of Christ with our time and effort, our prayers, and our money.

THE COVENANTER CHURCH finances her Home and Foreign Missions, her Witnessing, her Educational Institutions and her Beneficences, through what is called “Synod’s Budget.”

The pictures in this folder show the Covenant Church in action. In a number of the departments of her work that are financed by Synod’s Budget, we are helping to support these various lines of Christian activity.

Therefore, we Covenanters have a splendid opportunity to serve the Lord with our money by contributing generously and regularly to Synod’s Budget.
Physical Education Class at the Girls’ Academy, Nicosia, Cyprus.

Junior Society at the Southern Mission, Selma, Alabama.

Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Ward, and a group of Indian Christians, Cache Creek Mission, Apache, Oklahoma.

One of the windows at our Jewish Mission, South Philadelphia, Pa.

Synod’s Budget this year is $72,000

This is to be apportioned as follows:

- Foreign Missions ............... $18,000
- Home Missions ................ 4,000
- Indian Mission ................. 2,000
- Southern Mission .............. 200
- Kentucky Mission ............. 5,000
- Witness Committee ............ 10,000
- Theological Seminary .......... 3,150
- Students’ Aid .................. 1,500
- Ministerial Relief ............. 3,150
- Widows and Orphans .......... 800
- Geneva College ............... 16,000
- Covenant Witness ............. 5,500
- Woman’s Association .......... 2,250

Total .............. $72,000